Laterra Academy, a subsidiary of Laterra Revolution Properties, envisions evolving into a comprehensive business university, offering a wide range of business courses. To bring this vision to life, we crafted a compelling brand identity and strategic framework that aligns with their ambitious goals. Our process began with ideation services to clearly define and articulate their vision, ensuring a strong foundation for growth. We then developed a sophisticated online learning platform, providing a seamless and engaging user experience. With these enhancements, Laterra Academy is well-positioned to scale and deliver exceptional educational value to its students.

MAGALI
